CIPMA is a national not-for-profit trade association representing the unique interests of independent fuel marketers. CIPMA adds value to member companies through advocacy work on issues impacting the independent petroleum marketing sector, providing networking opportunities and through industry education. Leadership is provided by a Board of Directors which is elected by full members.

To qualify as a CIPMA marketing member, the company must be 50% or less owned by a refining company, and be involved in the business of marketing petroleum products or renewable fuels in any class of trade. All applicants must be approved by CIPMA's Board of Directors.

CIPMA's policy requires that all its members strictly adhere to the Competition Act at all CIPMA events and meetings. Kindly sign and return the attached agreement to adhere to the Act.

Dues:

Membership dues are based on the member company's total annual sales volume (millions of litres) of renewable liquid fuels and petroleum products in Canada. Annual dues plus applicable taxes are payable on the anniversary date of the member company joining CIPMA. Companies may join at any time through the year. The member company will be invoiced when the application has been accepted.

Application:

I hereby apply for Membership in CIPMA.
